

Marshall running back Jay McKeever is tackled by Williams linebacker Gary Bertier after a short gain. McKeever gained 70 yards in 15 carries for the Statesmen.

Oct 8, 1971

T.C. Williams quarterback Ronnie Bass scrambles in search of a pass receiver in the first quarter of last night's non-district AAA game at Marshall.

Williams won the game, 21-16, scoring two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Oct 8, 1971

(SUN Photo by Batch)

Oct 8, 1971

(Staff photo by Jim Tingstrum)

ROUGH GAME?

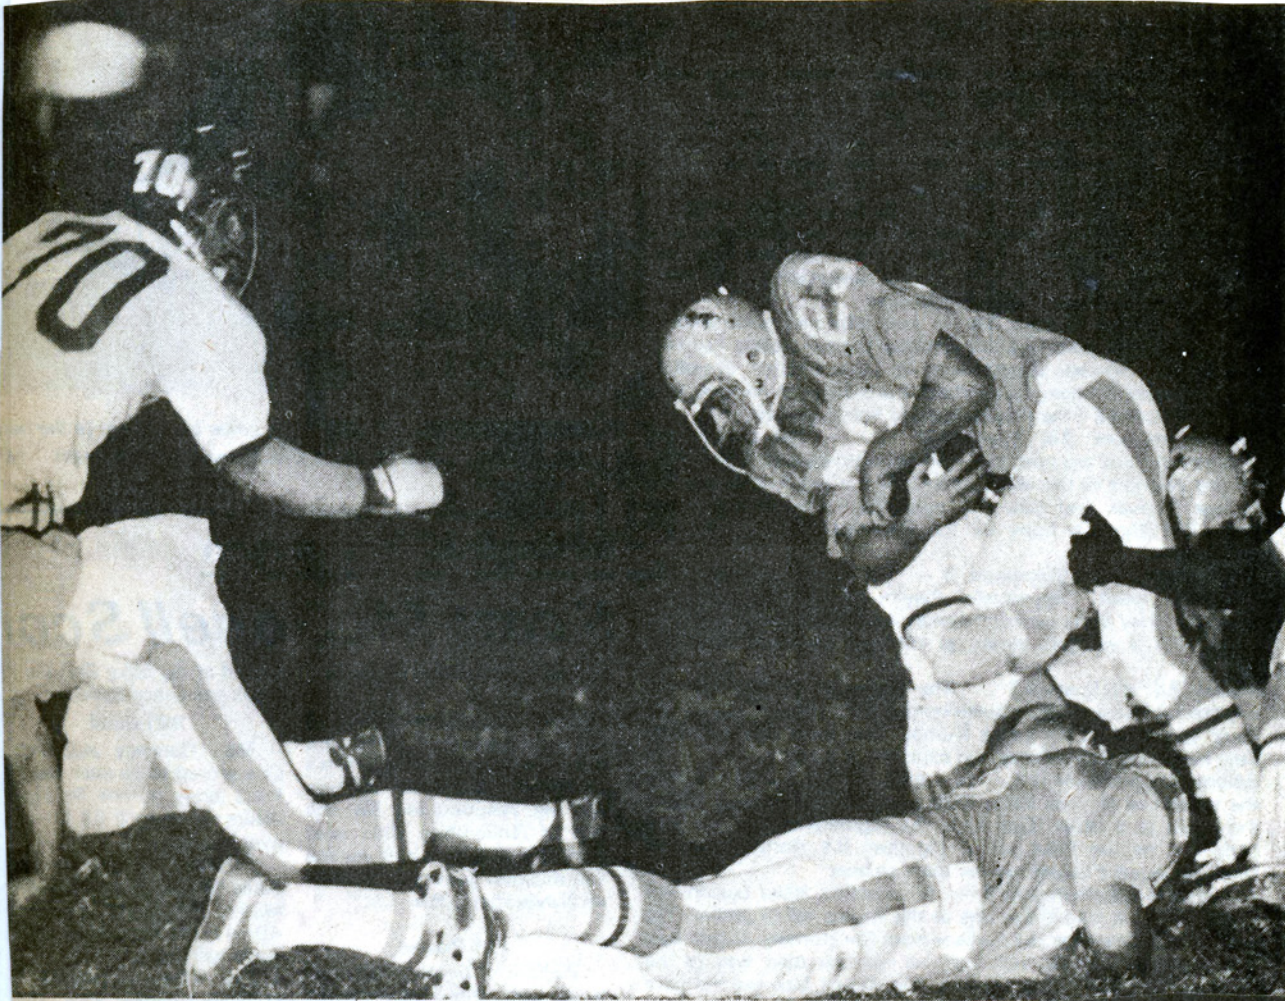

WEEKEND FOOTBALL ACTION produced numerous surprises with Oakton upending Langley and top-ranked

T.C. Williams scoring a come-from-behind win over Marshall. In the photo on the right, Marshall's explosive backfield combination of Al Boudreau, Mike Oliff and Jay McKeever (left to right) discuss the possibility of upsetting Williams.

Marshall - T.C. Williams Clash Highlights

12 The Globe (Eastern Group) Thursday, October 14, 1971

Oct 8, 1971

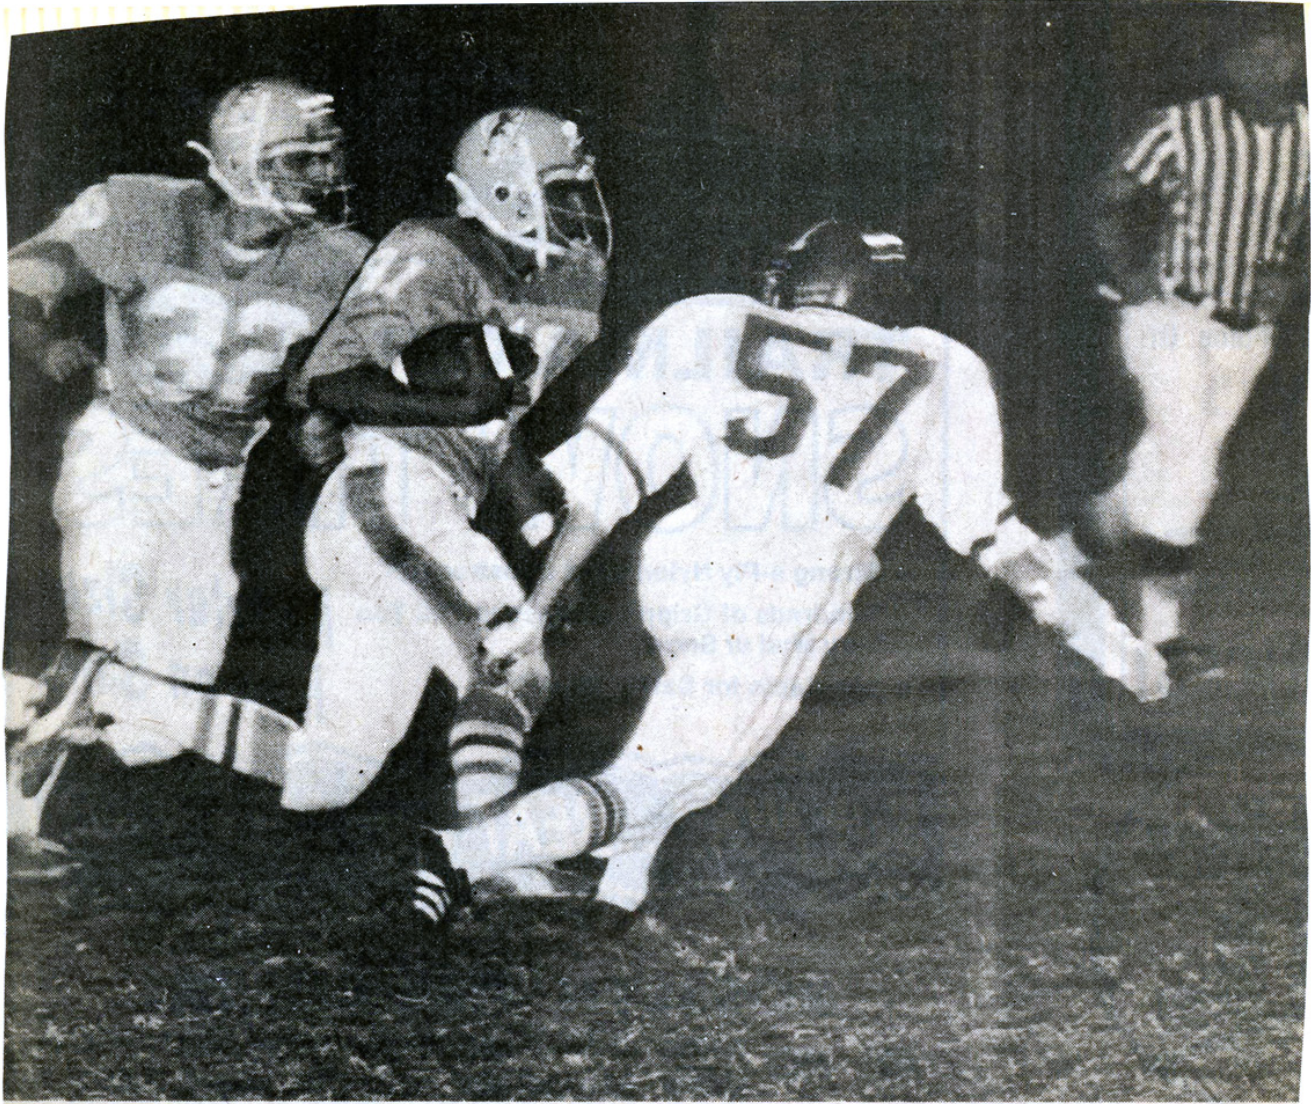

MARSHALL'S JAY McKEEVER fights for extra yardage.

THE TITANS' OFFENSE rolls to the left.

THINGS GET TENSE on the field as Marshall cheerleader Janice Wolf looks on.

MARSHALL'S MIKE ATALLA rambles for yardage.

Oct 8, 1971

BARKING INSTRUCTIONS ALONG the sidelines to his team is Marshall head coach Ed Henry.

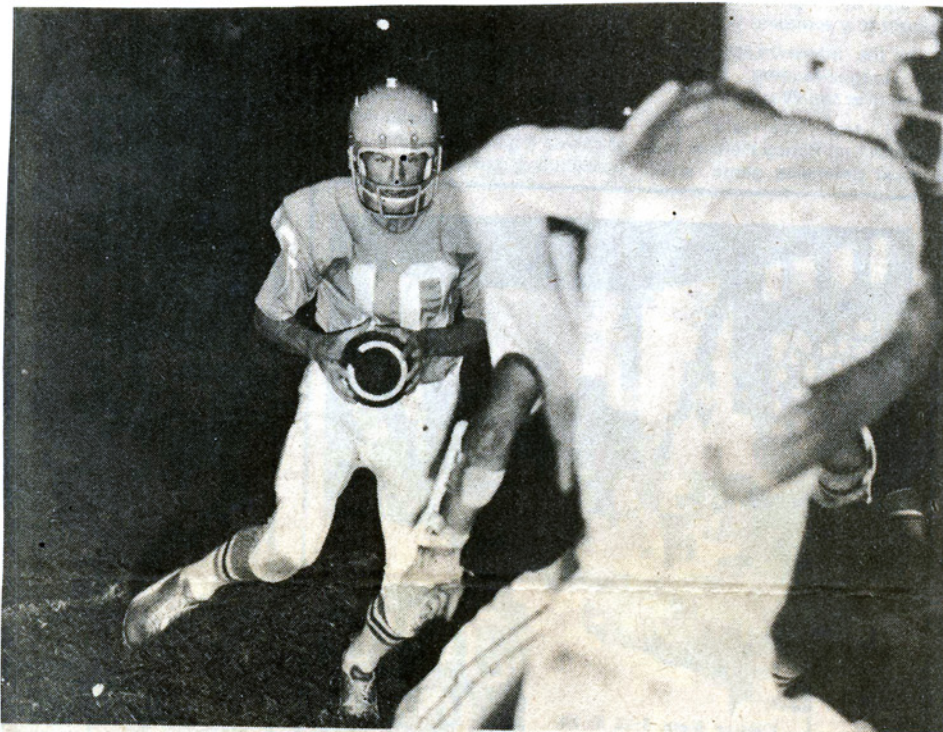

CHEERING THEM ON...

Oct 8, 1971

THE STATESMEN'S CHEERLEADERS look on from a different vantage point — the bench.

ROLLING AROUND END here is Statesmen quarterback Mike Oliff on the option.

THINGS GETTING ROUGH up in the middle.