Nancy Jo Bell-London

Feb 6, 2019

Suddenly on December 22, 2018, Nancy Jo of Sterling, VA, went to be with her Lord. Nancy Jo was born on May 22, 1955 and was the daughter of the late Walter Joseph Bell and Margaret (Peggy) Mason Bell. She was also predeceased by her loving husband of 25 years, Don London, and her brother, Ted Stuart Bell. One nephew of Georgetown, GA, Ted Joseph Bell, survives Nancy Jo. She is also survived by her Uncle Lewis Mason (Annie) of Spotsylvania, Aunts Marjorie Mason Jackson (Whitney) of Leesburg, and Hilda Mason Robinson of Aldie and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and step-niece and nephew Adrienne Harris and John Harris. Nancy's best friend from childhood, Myrie Ward, and longtime friend, Tammy Miller, shares the family's grief and loss. Nancy Jo did administrative work for several companies including Honeywell, where she met her husband, Enterasys, Fairfax County Police Dept. and R.V.I.A. where she retired from in 2016. Nancy left these places with so many friends whom she kept in touch with throughout the years. She never met a stranger. She was so caring and giving. Nancy Jo loved spending time with family and friends at her beach home in Ocean Pines, MD, where she was when she passed away. Nancy was also an avid Nascar fan, especially Dale Earnhardt. Nancy Jo had requested no formal services. Cremation was handled by Burbage Funeral Home in Berlin, MD. Donations may be made to Aldie United Methodist Church, P. O. Box 14, Aldie, VA 20105 or to the charity of your choice.
