*I know a little spanish,
I know that tu means you.
But that's about all I'll learn,
Because it'll be awhile till level two.*

Marco Stiles

Last Will and Testament

I, Jim Winslow, do hereby leave to any seventh grader my too tall, too narrow, jammed locker if they can remember the combination.

I, Joanne Crim, leave to Mr. Garwood all the oatmeal cookies he can eat.

I, Debbie Alstader, leave Miss Kelly all my wrong history answers.

I, Jim Moss, leave to Mrs. McCabe my perfect attendance record and spit balls on the ceiling.

I, Marilyn Sirpis, leave Mr. Singhas my experiment failures.

I, Mary Anne Frazier, leave to any barefoot seventh grader all the socks I lost in the gym.

I, Mark Waymack, leave to Mr. Thwait's one box of Wheaties.

I, Patrick Dowd, leave to Mr. Collins my secret map of where I have hidden all of the bottle stoppers I happened to find.

We, Shelly Johnson and Anita Young leave to a future guidance helper our tired feet and a map of the school.

I, Marvin Petry, leave to David Evans a dime for coffee at the Coffee Shop.

I, Betty Garnett, leave to Mrs. Guida my great French accent.

I, Brian Cooper, leave a free hair trim to any seventh grader who needs it.

I, Tony Bennett, leave to Mr. Roy my child psychology books.

I, Paul Birch, leave to Jimmy Galleher my seat in Miss September's sixth period class.

I, Ernest Oney, leave to Mrs. Walker one tape recording of "My Frustrations in Spanish".

I, Leonard Perroots, leave the 20 math books in my locker to any seventh grader daring enough to try to dig them out.

I, Bruce Rodgers, do hereby leave to Mr. Roy my 1943 Mets baseball schedule.

I, Allen Flynn, leave 100 pounds of ants for Mr. Geuder's ant-eater.

I, Steve Erie, leave to Mrs. Taylor all the writing on her classroom back wall.

I, Matt Adams, leave to Mr. Usher my five broken squirt guns.

I, Jim Charlton, leave Mrs. Carney all the assignments I didn't finish.

I, Kevin Hoover, leave to Mr. Shinghas my Handy Dandy Chemistry Set and a book on chemical magic.

We, Missy Cawly and Joyce Jackson, leave to any seventh grader our notebook of Mr. Whitman's jokes.

I, Brad Harris, leave Mrs. Taylor my Shakespeare notebook.

I, Patty Betts, leave my lost baton to any seventh grader who can find it.

I, Ruth Foltz, leave my worn Romeo and Juliet book to Mrs. Taylor.

I, Patty Furr, leave to Diane Alpy all the love letters I wrote to her boyfriend.

We, Gil Lunsford and Jim Oliver, leave Mr. Mackenzie a bottle of Excedrin for all the headaches we gave him.

We, the seventh period math class, leave Miss Morris our great conduct.

I, Michelle Harmon, leave Mr. Moore my "Thought for the week" book.

I, Betsy DiSilvio, leave to any seventh grade girl's gym class a weeks supply of deoderant.

I, Mary Ridgeway, leave all my history notes to anyone who can read and understand them.

I, Virgil Weber, leave to a seventh grader my broken chair in Mr. Garwood's class.

I, Winnie Monroe, leave my track shoes for Mr. Jarman.

I, Lee Cheatham, leave my fabulous art work for Mrs. Lashbrook to display at the National Art Gallery.

I, Michael Davitt, leave all my girl friends to any deserving seventh grader.

I, Tim Burns, leave Mr. Murray all the used gum that stuck to the bottom of the trash can.

I, Shirlett Miller, leave the echos of my songs to the halls of J.G. Whittier.

I, Janet Freeman, leave to the halls of J.G. Whittier the memory of being squirted 22 times in one day.

I, Kevin Hoover, leave to Miss Kelly and Mrs. Carney all the leftover Whittier Gazettes.

I, Jimmy Riggles, leave my perfect record of eating my lunch in Mrs. Ream's class to any one who dares try it.

I, Ronald Taylor, leave Mr. Mackenzie my box of broken test tubes.

I, Tom Bunn, leave my place in the cafeteria line to anyone who isn't hungry.

I, David Ducharme, leave all the tears Karen Burnett left to me.

No, no Gil - they go on the inside!

Hi, Mr. Usher!

No sense waiting - it's Debbie

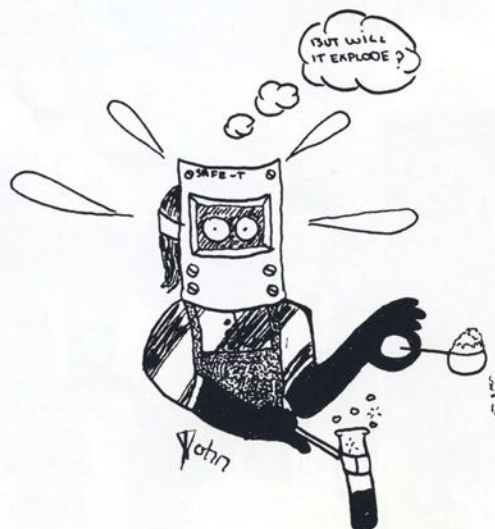

"On my honor I will try..."

Is this for the yearbook?

Time for a Crest Commercial.

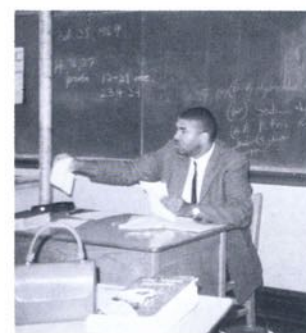

"We all came back to Brylcream..."

"...and we're glad they did."

What else is for lunch?

Do it over!

Reach brother!

Shirlett takes her bows.

"Norman, have you seen my sleeping pills? ... Hey, Norman."

Sweethearts from the dance of the same name.

Cutie Katie

Whittier wrote about a barefoot boy - but, yuk!

You're putting me on?

Ah, sola mia!

The sum of the set of complex conjugates is infinity????

The strong arms of science.

d'ja get the answer?

Psst! Where's the boys' room??

Valentine's Day Dance

Queen Jennifer King and Tony Bennett

Third runner-up, Shirlett Miller.

THIS YEARBOOK HAS BEEN BROUGHT TO YOU BY...

We, the members of the 1968-69 yearbook
 Hope you, without hesitation, open and look
 At all the school's ideas simplified
 Beyond these covers inside.
 Most of our paraphernalia is related
 To the ideas the students have stated.
 We wish to thank all those who took
 A part in this year's Whittier yearbook.

Cordially,
 The Yearbook Staff

"We were on the warpath until the deadline." Tony Bennett - Editor

"I was constantly reaching for new ideas." Mindy Manley

"You ain't seen nothin' yet!
 Bonnie Baxter

"I got ideas through my youthful education."
 Joyce Jackson - Assistant Editor

"Please Mr. Whiplash, spare
 my life."
 Michelle Harman - Art Editor

"This was going to be a foldout."
 Marcia Yanick

"Do you realize that I would have made a great montage?"
 Jimmy Moss

"I was tickled when they announced that I was on the staff." Jimmy Gallagher

"My social life helped evolve my wonderful suggestions." Chris DuBois

"The exasperation I faced was enough to drive a person insecure." Bob Updegrove - Lettering

Roger Marcellin - 7th grade checker

"If only 'Laugh-In' had asked me first." John Holloway - Cartoonist

Greg McIntosh - 7th grade checker

"I've heard of potted plants, but this is ridiculous." Paul Birch.
